

City of Covina seeks poll workers to volunteer for the 2013 General Municipal Election. By volunteering to be a poll worker, you provide service to your community and contribute to the electoral process.

With the March 5, 2013 general municipal election approaching, the Covina City Clerk's Office is seeking poll workers to serve on Election Day. Bilingual poll workers are especially needed (English and Spanish).

Those who are interested in in being a poll worker: Must be registered voter. Must attend a training class (date of class to be determined)

Will be expected to serve the entire day - from 6:00 a.m. to approximately 9:30 p.m.

Must complete and submit a poll worker application.

The positions of Inspector and Clerk are responsible for ensuring the duties connected with the conduct of the election at polling places are fulfilled. The position of Inspector requires experience as a poll worker and the position of Clerk does not require any previous experience. Poll workers are paid up to $150 stipend if they attend the training class and work on Election Day.

Interested citizens may contact the Covina City Clerk's Office to complete an application between the office hours of Monday-Thursday, 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Application s may also be downloaded and submitted to the City Clerk's Office located inside of City Hall. For additional information, please call (626)384-5430